I am passionate for web development, bringing forth motivation for programming, and working on projects. I consider myself responsible, easygoing, ambitious, technologically, and culturally adept. I enjoy playing sports, leading teams, and acquire new software techniques. I currently seek a full-time job opportunity where I can deliver, dive more into my full-stack skills and grow professionally over time.

You can look on my works in the following portfolio: <https://blasnjacobo.github.io/portfolio>
